

Original RTF Guidelines-2004

Organized by Guidelines

- 1 Democracy, Good governance, Human rights, Rule of law
- 2 Economic development policies
- 3 Strategies
- 4 Market Systems
- 5 Institutions
- 6 Stakeholders
- 7 Legal framework
- 8 Access to resources and assets
 - a Labour
 - b Land
 - c Water
 - d Genetic resources for food and agriculture
 - e Sustainability
 - f Services
- 9 Food Safety and customer protection
- 10 Nutrition
- 11 Education and awareness raising
- 12 National financial resources
- 13 Support for Vulnerable groups
- 14 Safety nets
- 15 International aid
- 16 Natural and Human-made disasters
- 17 Monitoring, indicators and benchmarks
- 18 National human rights institutions

Development of new instruments,
interpretations,
recommendations

Enriched Normative Framework-2018

Organized by theme

- 1. Holistic Approach
 - a Policy Coherence
 - b Procedural Elements
 - c Extraterritorial Human Rights Obligations
 - d Indivisibility of Human rights
- 2. Democratic Control and Accountability
 - a Participation
 - b Monitoring
 - c Access to Remedies
 - d Human Rights Defenders
- 3. Protracted Crisis, Conflict and Natural Disasters
 - a Prior to Crisis
 - b During Crisis
 - c After Crisis
- 4. Peoples' Sovereignty over Natural Resources and Right to Livelihood
 - a Food Sovereignty
 - b Smallholder Livelihoods and Rights to Productive Resources
 - c Rights of Indigenous Peoples
- 5. Healthy and Sustainable Food Systems and Diets
 - a Holistic approach to food systems and nutrition
 - b Agroecolog
 - c Additional Improvements of the Sustainability of food systems
 - d Achieving sustainable and Healthy diets for marginalized and disadvantage groups
- 6. Workers' Rights
- 7. Rights –Based Approaches to Social Protection, Development Aid, Trade and Investment
 - a Social protection
 - b Development
 - c Trade and investment deals
- 8. Women's Rights
 - a Women's Right to Food (food- specific instruments)
 - b Women's Right to food as intersectional approach